One of my favorite things in the world is to make others smile by serving! Victor Hugo once said, “Music expresses that which cannot remain silent.” Music is my life and the world is my song! Let me sing!

I love this wondrous city with all of my heart! I love to associate with the amazing and talented people who reside here. I have traveled to many places near and far, but at the end of the day my heels long to click 3 times like Dorothy’s, and be in the Tooele City; for there is no place like home, and Tooele City is my true home.”

Serving as Miss Tooele City has been the greatest experience of my life. It has been such an amazing privilege to learn about my community, promote this wonderful City, and celebrate all that is truly special about Tooele and our country. I am so thankful for every memory that I have made throughout this journey.

Some of my favorite experiences this year were singing to our veterans, celebrating patriotism, and sharing moments with the children of our community. Seeing a child’s eyes light up as we danced with them at a concert or read to them at the library always reminded me of how important our children are to our future. I value the fact that they are always looking up to us and worked to be a good role model.

Being Miss Tooele City 2012 has been an exciting, tender, humbling and truly unforgettable chapter in my life. This journey has been a stepping stone for bigger things to come, but I am thankful to know that I’ll always be Sara Webber, Miss Tooele City 2012.

Thank you to Tooele City from the bottom of my heart.

XOXO, Sara Webber
