The purpose of the TAC is to recognize teens as a great human resource while promoting positive development through soliciting their input and participation in the creation and development of library activities, programs, displays, and services. Meetings are held each month and TAC members are expected to attend TAC meetings as well as TAC organized activities on a regularly basis. Accepted applicants will be contacted by June 7, 2019 and given further information on our introductory meeting to be held in August 2019.
